Oue China Tlail. HONGKONG, TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1889.

THE correspondence which we published on Saturday with reference to a direct cable to Singapore, or rather a cable from Hongkong to Singapore not touching foreign territory, does not much improve the prespect of our soon becoming independent of the Saigon connection. The Chamber of Commerce, while recognising the value of direct telegraphic communication with British North Borneo, a rapidly developing territory in which a large amount of Hongkong capital has been invested, do not think that the Colony of Hongkong is call ed upon to pay a large subsidy a new cable. Their view is certainly sound financial one. The present line via Suigon is more than ample for the existing traffic, and a new cable, unless it were constructed by a rival company, would not hasten the time when a reduction of rates might be expected. The extension of the Burmah line to meet the Chinese line, as a possibility of affording competition, lies more in the interest of Hongkong merchants But apart from the question of direct communication with the laying of a cable between Hongkong and Borneo would not so develop the trade to-day. between these places as to justify Hongkong in giving a small subsidy towards the THE N. But might we not expect to abtain such a warning by the Saigon line, which would not likely be cut before war was declared? And even supposing it were cut, and invaluable for maintaining the system there would remain the Burmah and China route, which we hope will be completed in a few months. Of course it is possible that we might have difficulties with China at the same time as with France and that this line might also be out, but that is a rather far off contingency. Then we must not to the poorness of that crop. The jury, however, desired to hear counsel. His Lordship, in addressing the jury, for the first six months following the date said the principal question for the jury was that of identity. On that point the evidence was not very satisfactory. The complainant had not distinguished himself as a man who told the truth, he having wandered from it several times in a serious manner. The jury found the prisoner not guilty by a majority of 6 to L The Sessions then adjourned till 10 a.m.

Colon, April 20.-President Nunez of Colombia publishes to-day a most important letter, which is regarded as a death-blow to all French schemes in connection with Panama, and is a strong declaration in favor of the principles of the Monroe doctrine. It is now positively certain that the canal will never be brought to completion by M. De Lessers' French company, for the concession of the latter expires in 1892, and the Colombian Government is determined not to grant any extension thereof to the company. Both the Government and people here are extremely anxious that the canal should be finished by the that it would be to the latter of the same importance that the Suez canal is to England.

PARNELL'S CASE. London, April 20 .- The city is practicaly described for Easter. Every public man of prominence has gone to the seaside or the country. Parnell, whose holidays are few and far between, is away with the rest preparing for the severe ordeal in the witness box when the commission meets again. Webster is girding on his strongest armor for this contest with Parnell. Everybody laughs at the idea of such a stolid, slow man as Webster being able to shake Parnell'a evidence one hair's breath; but he means to try hard. The members of the Irish party express complete confidence in the result of Parnell's appearance. Their leader's self-confidence never appeared to better advantage than when under such trying circumstances as he must face and fight within the next few weeks.
